This legislation, as proposed, will harm my business directly and indirectly will harm my income. I work for a hotel in Phoenix and we are in the business of hosting confrerences and events. Remove the limitation on conference participation as a "gift"--it is not a gift to sit in a banquet chair from 8am to 8pm each day--it is needed so that executive branch members can remain part of the engine to our economic recovery. Barring them from participation will take us in the wrong direction.
