	Department of the Army Headquarters (HQDA) is composed of two administrative units: the Army Secretariat and the Army Staff. Each has an independent ethics office. The two offices work closely with each other to ensure consistency in the ethics-related services provided throughout HQDA. The Army Secretariat is responsible for providing required notices to prospective employees and new supervisors and conducting initial ethics orientation for both Army Secretariat and Army Staff employees. Separate tables are displayed below for the ethics program elements that are administered independently: public and confidential financial disclosure; annual ethics training; and, ethics advice and counseling. (1.9 – 1.10) The Army Secretariat and Army Staff have separate primary, day-to-day ethics program administrators that have the same title and grade level. (1.11 – 1.12) The Army Secretariat has two full-time and three part-time ethics officials. The Army Staff has one full-time and two part-time ethics officials.

COMMENTS
(5.1 – 5.4, 5.8) OGE examined a sample of notices. The notices provided to prospective employees who would be required to file confidential financial disclosure reports and the notices provided to prospective employees who would not be required to file a report met content requirements. However, the notices provided to prospective employees who would be required to file public financial disclosure reports did not include: a statement regarding the agency's commitment to government ethics, a notice that the individual will be subject to the Standards of Conduct and the criminal conflict of interest statutes, contact information for an appropriate agency ethics office or an explanation of how to obtain additional information on applicable ethics requirements, or notice of the time frame for completing initial ethics training. Once advised, HQDA amended the notices. All notices now fully meet content requirements.

6.0 NOTICES TO NEW SUPERVISORS
COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS		Yes	No	N/A

6.7	The agency can demonstrate that there is an effective process for ensuring that new supervisors receive the required information within one year of appointment. See 5 C.F.R. § 2638.306(b).	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
COMMENTS
(6.1 – 6.4, 6.7) Notices to new supervisors were not routinely issued until after December 23, 2020, when Army HR officials mandated issuance of this notice in all final written offers of employment for supervisory positions. OGE collected a sample of notices sent after December 23 and determined that new supervisors now receive notices that fully meet content requirements.
