COMMENTS
(3.9) Four of the nine new entrant reports were filed late because of internal promotions. The Ethics Office did not receive notification from Human Resources of the promotions in the same process as newly hired employees. After finding out about the promotions, the Ethics Office notified the employees to file and the reports were then timely filed. The Ethics Office demonstrated a comprehensive awareness of relevant personnel actions and reviews senior leader promotion packets to provide advance notice of filing positions.
(3.14-3.17) USUHS does not have any PAS officials.

GENERAL AGENCY COMMENTS

Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences (USUHS) response to Item 3.9: We acknowledge the timeliness concern regarding new entrants and have worked with our HR Department to receive notice of new entrants who have been promoted from within to become public financial disclosure filers. That notification from HR and the General Counsel review of promotion requests will ensure timely notification, review and receipt of new entrant reports.
