COMMENTS
(3.2) At the time of OGE’s inspection IAF written procedures for financial disclosure did not address the requirement to certify reports within 60 days of receipt. Subsequently, ethics officials amended the procedures to include the requirement to certify reports within 60 days of receipt. (3.4) There were no public reports that required the late filing fee to be assessed. (3.13) There were only three public reports required to be filed in 2023 by IAF employees. Two of the three reports were certified later than 60 days of receipt.

ISSUES IDENTIFIED AND RESOLVED DURING THE INSPECTION

Element	ISSUE
3.2 & 4.2	ISSUE: IAF written procedures for financial disclosure did not address the requirement to certify reports within 60 days of receipt. AGENCY RESPONSE: IAF amended its written procedures to include the 60-day certification requirement.

GENERAL AGENCY COMMENTS

The IAF places a great deal of importance on ensuring that a sound ethics practice is threaded through the agency's culture in the U.S. and internationally. We have worked to ensure that all staff, SGE, and contractors, both domestically and abroad, are trained in the standards of government ethics. We are proud that all staff and SGE's were trained in 2023, with the exception of 1 staff who was on extended leave and completed interactive training upon their return.

We have always ensured that initial review of public and confidential financial disclosures are done within 60 days of receipt. Although, in 2023 all reports were initially reviewed within 60 days of receipt, 1 public report required many follow up questions which resulted in certification after 60 days of receipt. Another public report was reviewed and approved by our agency within 60 days of receipt, however required certification by OGE which occurred after 60 days. We have incorporated OGE's feedback to update our written procedures to include the requirement to certify reports within 60 days of receipt and will continue to abide by this regulation. We are pleased that the results of this audit show how the IAF values government ethics in our day-to-day operations both operationally and programmatically.
